

Barbara Steiner

Associate
Geneva

Member of the Geneva Bar
+41 (0) 22 555 82 20
bsteiner@archipel.law

Expertise

Civil and commercial litigation
Fraud & white-collar crime
Labour and immigration law

Languages

French
English
Portugese
Spanish

Biography

Barbara Steiner practices national and international litigation as well as white-collar crime.

She is a member of the Geneva Bar. Her practice focuses on complex civil and criminal litigation, with a particular emphasis on disputes involving aspects of private and public international law, including labor law and white-collar crime. She also has good knowledge and experience in immigration law.

Prior to joining Archipel as an associate in 2023, she completed her legal traineeship at a Geneva-based litigation law firm. Furthermore, she worked as a lawyer for an association dedicated to labor law. Barbara was admitted to the bar in 2022. She also holds a Bachelor's degree in International Relations, a Master's degree in Swiss Law and a Certificate of advanced studies in legal professions from the University of Geneva.

During her studies, she actively participated in the University of Geneva's Law Clinic on the rights of vulnerable people. She also provided legal counselling for an association defending asylum seekers.

Professional affiliations

ODAGE

Publications

Brochure “Droit des jeunes personnes migrantes non accompagnées”, University of Geneva Law Clinic, 2021

Education

Geneva Bar, 2022

University of Geneva - Certificate of Advanced Studies in Legal Professions

University of Geneva - Master in general law

University of Geneva – Bachelor in International Relations, majoring in law

Professional background

Legal internships in migration law and international law

Legal internship with a Geneva law firm specialising in litigation

Lawyer for an association dedicated to labour law