

Stéphane Vauthey

Associate
Geneva

Member of the Geneva Bar
+41 (0) 22 555 82 20
svauthey@archipel.law

Expertise

Civil and commercial litigation
International criminal law

Languages

French
English
German

Biography

Stéphane Vauthey practices in the fields of civil and criminal litigation.

Stéphane Vauthey is a lawyer specialising in criminal law, civil and commercial litigation, international criminal law and debt collection law.

A graduate of the University of Geneva, Stéphane obtained a bachelor's degree and a master's degree in general law before qualifying as a specialist lawyer at the end of 2020. He started his career at the Service cantonal d'avance et de recouvrement des pensions alimentaires de Genève (SCARPA), where he completed the first part of his legal internship between 2021 and 2022. He then joined Archipel to complete his training from 2022 to 2023.

After passing his bar exam in November 2023, Stéphane returned to Archipel's Geneva office as an associate. His practice focuses on criminal, civil and commercial litigation, representing clients before the various Swiss courts.

His expertise also extends to debt collection law, where he is particularly involved in enforcement proceedings.

Stéphane is known for his commitment to defending his clients' interests with rigour and determination in sensitive and often cross-border cases.

Professional affiliations

ODAGE

Education

University of Geneva - Certificate of Advanced Studies in Legal Professions

University of Geneva - Master in general law

University of Geneva - Bachelor of Law

Professional background

Legal internship at the Service cantonal d'avance et de recouvrement des pensions alimentaires (SCARPA)

Legal internship at Archipel