

Gina Auciello

Associate
Geneva

Member of the Geneva Bar
+41 (0) 22 555 82 20
gauciello@archipel.law

Expertise

Contract law
Commercial litigation
Asset recovery
White-collar crime

Languages

French
English

Biography

Gina Auciello practices in the areas of commercial relations and white-collar crime.

Gina is a member of the Geneva Bar. She is mainly active in the field of litigation involving complex civil and criminal matters. She assists and advises her clients on all matters related to contract law, commercial law and debt collection procedures (seizure, attachment and bankruptcies proceedings). Her practice also extends to criminal business law, international mutual assistance in criminal matters and criminal offences committed in the context of bankruptcy.

Education

Master's degree in civil and criminal law
Certificate in transnational law from the University of Geneva

Professional background

Research and teaching assistant in the Department of Commercial Law at the University of Geneva (Enforcement and civil procedure)

Ph.D thesis on bankruptcy law (summa cum laude)