Maëlle Thirard-Guerrier practices in international business law and litigation.

Admitted to the Paris Bar, Maëlle's practice focuses on international business litigation: cross-border proceedings, asset recovery and international recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments and arbitration awards, particularly in fraud matters. She also advises clients on international business law, international contract law and intellectual property law.

Prior to joining Archipel as an associate in 2021, Maëlle trained within the international arbitration and commercial disputes teams of several international law firms in Paris and Luxembourg.

She holds a Master's Degree in Arbitration & International Business Law from Versailles University (Paris-Saclay). She also studied at Oxford Brookes University (UK) and Paris Ovest Nanterre University.

Maëlle works in French and English.
