Marlena Harutyunyan focuses her practice on international arbitration and litigation.

Marlena mainly represents and advises clients in arbitration proceedings, both commercial and investment, before major arbitral institutions (ICC, ICSID, LCIA, etc.) She has experience in different industry sectors, including construction, aviation, energy, oil and gas, as well as in industrial risks, defective products and post-acquisition disputes. Marlena also acts for clients in complex commercial litigation.

Prior to joining Archipel, she practiced international arbitration and litigation in the Paris and New York offices of Baker McKenzie and at De Gaulle Fleurance & Associés in Paris.

Marlena is admitted to practice in Paris. She holds a Master's degree in Commercial Law (cum laude) and a Magistère de Juriste d'Affaires—D.J.C.E. (cum laude) from the Université Panthéon-Assas—Paris II (2012).

Marlena is a native Armenian speaker and works in English, French and Russian. She also has a good knowledge of Ukrainian.
