PRACTICE AREAS

- | International arbitration
- | Commercial law

Pablo specialises in International Arbitration and is qualified to practice in Spain and Ecuador.

He has been involved in several complex international commercial arbitration proceedings, before some of the main arbitration institutions, under multiple laws, gaining experience in the fields of construction, energy, and shipping.

He is an active Coordinator at International Arbitration Seminars & Courses (IASC), association of young practitioners that organises courses and events around the world, aimed at fostering a deeper understanding of International Arbitration.

Prior to joining Archipel in 2022, Pablo worked as an International Arbitration Intern at a firm in Madrid and as a Legal & Tax Consultant at a Big-Four in Ecuador.

He earned his Law Degree from Catholic University of Guayaquil in Ecuador and from University of Nebrija in Spain, and his LL.M. in Business Law from University of Navarra in Madrid.

Pablo is bilingual in English and Spanish and has a good command of French.
