Dr. Panagiotis Kyriakou specializes in international arbitration, trade, finance and sports law.

Panagiotis has advised private clients, governments and local counsel on arbitral proceedings under the ICC, ICSID, UNCITRAL and Swiss Rules. He has also provided legal and policy advice in relation to international trade matters, including WTO dispute settlement proceedings, subsidies/state aid and regional integration norms.

Moreover, Panagiotis has experience in CAS proceedings and disciplinary disputes before sports governing bodies, as well as matters pertaining to the annulment, recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards.

Prior to joining Archipel, Panagiotis was a Teaching Assistant at the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, while advising governments and private clients as an independent legal consultant.

Moreover, he interned with White & Case and Lalive in Geneva, as well as Derains & Gharavi in Paris and Dryllerakis & Associates in Athens, in addition to having reviewed submissions for the Journal of International Economic Law.

Panagiotis obtained his PhD from the Graduate Institute under the supervision of Prof. Joost Pauwelyn, focusing on the international regime complex for financial crisis response.

He obtained his LL.B. from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens and his LL.M. from MIDS. He regularly publishes and delivers lectures on international investment, trade, sports and financial law.
